Workshops 2a:
Speaking out for stroke locally
Esmee Russell
With thanks to our sponsor

UK Stroke Assembly
Why is speaking out locally important?

- Decisions are made locally
- Issues vary from area to area
- MPs, councillors and CCGs want to hear from you
Why is speaking out locally important?

With thanks to our sponsor

[Logo: Irwin Mitchell Solicitors]

[Logo: UK Stroke Assembly]

[Logo: Stroke Association]
What is speaking out locally?
What is speaking out locally?

- Public consultations
- Meetings with MPs, councillors
- Attending Local Authority meetings
- Speaking to the media
Julie’s Story

With thanks to our sponsor

UK Stroke Assembly

Hosted by Stroke Association
What is the Stroke Association doing?

• Running pilots to see what works
• Working with local groups to campaign
• Setting up a Campaign Ambassador
• Supporting the campaigns network better
Your thoughts and ideas

Each table has one of our pilots

Note down:

• If it is a good idea and why?
• Support needed?
• What issues the pilots should work on?
• Any other ideas?