

Stroke Association Third Party Events Terms & Conditions – Own Place

These terms and conditions apply to each third party fundraising event in which you are participating in with your own place (“the Event”) and you must agree to these terms and conditions before participating in the Event as a fundraiser for the Stroke Association.

Fundraising

- You agree that all funds you raise in connection with the Event shall be raised using lawful methods and in compliance with any guidance provided to you by the Stroke Association to you in advance of the Event or given on the Stroke Association’s website.
- You agree that all funds raised shall be held on trust for the Stroke Association and you understand that you have a legal responsibility to ensure that all funds raised in connection with the Event are paid to us. We ask that you do this as soon as possible, but in any event within four weeks of the date of the Event. You will adhere to the ‘Paying in your fundraising’ guidelines on our website. You may not deduct any costs unless agreed in advance in writing with the Stroke Association.

Health & Fitness for the Event

- You are satisfied that you are sufficiently fit and able to take part in the Event. This is the sole responsibility of you as the participant, and if you have any doubts, please refer to your GP.
- You understand that you participate in the Event at your own risk.
- If you are taking medication which could cause drowsiness, or other side effects please seek medical advice before agreeing to these terms and conditions.

Publicity

- You agree that the Stroke Association may use without payment, notice or further consent any photographs, videos and other images in which you appear which are taken at the Event or Event-related occasion by our employees or representatives or other person attending, in our website, social network marketing activities or any other relevant promotional material for fundraising and promotional purposes. The Stroke Association will not, however, identify anyone by name without their agreement.

Behaviour at the Event

- You agree that during the Event you will not behave in any way that may cause offence or damage the Stroke Association's reputation, or which may cause injury or harm to other Event participants and/or spectators.

Participation in the Event

- The Event organiser may refuse entry to the Event in line with the Event organiser's terms and conditions.
- The Stroke Association reserves the right to ask you not to participate in the Event if the Stroke Association, the Event organiser or their agents or representatives reasonably believes your participation in the Event could result in: harm to you, other participants or spectators; and/or damage to the reputation of the Stroke Association.

Liability

- You understand that as the Stroke Association is not the Event organiser it is not responsible for: any illness or injury resulting from your participation in the Event; or any loss or damage sustained by you as a result of the cancellation of the Event or any changes to the Event for any reason.
- Nothing in these terms and conditions shall limit or exclude the Stroke Association's liability in respect of death or personal injury sustained or a direct result of:
  - the negligence, breach or statutory duty or fraudulent misrepresentation of the Stroke Association, its agents or representatives; or
  - a deliberate act or omission of the Stroke Association, its agents or representatives.

General

- You have provided us with information about your personal information, which we will use for the purposes of: administering the Event (including sharing your personal data with third party Event organisers where relevant), processing of any registration fees and donations; stewardship of participants to help with preparation for the Event and with their fundraising efforts; and direct postal marketing of future Events and other ways to support the Stroke Association. We will use your personal information in line with our Privacy Notice, which explains how we collect and use your personal data.
- The Stroke Association may vary these terms and conditions from time to time and the up to date terms and conditions shall be available on the Stroke Association's website.

- Any complaints should be communicated to the Stroke Association representative at the Event or, if that is not possible, then in writing to the Stroke Association using our Complaints Procedure.
